the company

Vaoni is a private company and was established by Stamatina Larda and Nickolaos Tsarnas, when they realized that there was a lack of availability of fine Greek agricultural food products in the international markets. Two young people with ethos, passion for healthy eating and respect to the Greek land, have decided to combine tradition and modernity in order to honor the Greek cuisine.*

Vaoni's primary goal is to produce a high quality of pure Greek products for better and healthier nutrition, as the good food is a way of living that affects us all on a daily basis. However, the company's vision is to ensure that its products will be the first choice among the consumers in the worldwide fine food arena as the Greek Mediterranean cuisine is considered a symbol of extreme refinement from the antiquity to the present.

Welcome to Vaoni and discover a world of Greek good taste.
